

When we all sing together
There's a river that flows ...

Music / Lyrics

Laura Brearley

Photography

Terry Melvin

The Birrarung/Yarra River has been a meeting place for thousands of years.

‘When We all Sing Together’ is a song about a river and the sense of connection we feel when we make music together.

The chorus of the song has been translated into Boon Wurrung language by Aunty Fay Stewart-Muir and the Woiwurrung language of the Wurundjeri people by Aunty Joy Murphy.

VERSE ONE

When we all sing together

There's a river that flows

In its own sweet time

With its highs and lows

VERSE TWO

When we all sing together

There's a glow that goes

From the tops of our heads

To the tips of our toes

CHORUS

Yinga-dha Birrarung Marr

Yinga-dha Djeembana x 2

Boon Wurrung Translation

Sing at the river Sing at the gathering place

VERSE THREE

When we all sing together

We can dance in the sun

For the voices of many

Have become as one

VERSE FOUR

When we all sing together

The river is strong

For we've made a space

Where we all belong

CHORUS

Yinggabbai Birrarung Marr

Yinggabbai Maggoleemang x 2

Woiwurrung Translation

Sing at the river Sing at the gathering place

